The Iowa Journal of Literary Studies is managed and edited by graduate students at The University of Iowa. We publish the work of people currently or recently enrolled in graduate programs at the university. We publish one issue annually and accept submissions from August through December each year.

To submit work, send two clean copies of manuscript. Do not include your name on the manuscript, as all submissions are reviewed anonymously. Include a cover letter indicating your name, address, title(s) of your work, the category to which you are submitting, and when you attended The University of Iowa. Criticism and book reviews should follow the guidelines of the MLA Style Manual. Submissions of poetry should be limited to seven poems. For art work, please consult with the editors prior to submission. The editors cannot accept responsibility for copies of work submitted. We return copyrights to authors for a small fee.

Submissions and inquiries should be directed to The Editor, Iowa Journal of Literary Studies, 308 EPB, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242. Telephone (319) 335-0592.

Acknowledgements: A sincere thanks goes to the faculty and staff of the English Department for their continuing support. We also thank the University of Iowa Student Association, which provides much of our funding.

We are grateful to the judges for our annual contests in criticism, personal essay, fiction, and poetry. Barbara Biesecker, now at the University of Iowa Rhetoric Department, judged the criticism contest; Scott Russell Sanders, who judged the essay contest, teaches at the University of Indiana, has written numerous books, and won the Associated Press Writing Programs Award for Creative Nonfiction for The Paradise of Bombs (1987); the fiction contest was judged by Bette Pesetsky; George Eklund, in the English Department at Morehead State University, Morehead, Kentucky, judged the poetry contest.
